Report of Superintendent

To the School Board and Citizens of Eaton:

The pupils in the Snowville school were making progress while Mrs. Mabel Linscott taught the school. Since the Christmas vacation very little has been accomplished because no regular teacher has been available. It was reported at a meeting in Concord on February 8 that there will probably be five vacancies for every one candidate for the coming school year. Few teachers are interested in rural schools of eight grades.

The teacher training schools are asking for more students in order for them to meet the demand for adequately trained teachers. More of our qualified young men and women should be encouraged to enter the teaching profession.

Pupils from Eaton attending high school are: Carl Bean, Irene Bean, Edwin French, Jr., Bruce Head, Donald Linscott and Richard Paul.

Respectfully submitted,

HAMMOND YOUNG
